Bundy Fund Growing

KANSAS CITY TO RAISE THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR THE BUNDY DEFENSE FUND.

The splendid manner in which the Negroes of Kansas City are rallying to the defense of Dr. Leroy M. Bundy in contributing funds to secure for him a new hearing is indeed gratifying and demonstrates that the Negro people are beginning to depend upon their own energies to accomplish things. There has been constant call both in person and over the telephone at the headquarters of the Committee in the Masonic Temple, 1803 E. 18th.

Dr. Bundy languishes in prison and under the severe mental and physical strain, his health is being slowly but surely undermined and it is the race has any sympathy for any Hero who has sacrificed ALL for its advancement, then it should help him in his hour of ordeal. Have you subscribed? If not, call up the Headquarters, bell phone E. 999, 1803 E. 18th street and let every Church, every Lodge, every social club and in fact every organization of the race make some contribution to this worthy and deserving fund.

Read the list carefully and see if your name is there.

season, in tribulation and joy in hot dust and blood, he worked on till pay day came.

From the time that the first Dutch vessel landed the Negroes in this country they have ever taken their seats in the Hall of Fame.

Slavery waited on her bosom the sweet poetess, Phillis Wheatley, the golden mouthed orator, Fred Douglass, Benjamin Hancker, the scientific astronomer, and Crispus Attucks, America's greatest hero, patriot and martyr.

Fighting beneath the folds of the "Stars and Stripes," sweeping the fire-flashed fields of 1861, coming back limping with the 13th and 14th amendments in his arms.

Staggering up San Juan's bloody hill into the jaws of death, brave as Caesar, courageous as Hannibal, daring as Ethan Allen, the Negro has followed the flag.

The muse of history seated on the throne of Beethoven, touched by the mystic cords of Virgil, will ever sing of the bravery and daring deeds of the Black Boys in Blue.

Our fathers who have gone down started the mighty structure, sealed and cemented it with blood and dying transmitted their mandates to us.

Lynch and Langston, Bruce and Murray in the Hall of Legislation have done their duty well, Scarborough has written his Greek Grammar, and Latin books for all generations to read.

Booker T. Washington, the wizard of the South, before he died, set 10,000 wheels in motion.

Professor Wright of Georgia, has told the world that we are rising.

Mitchell, Fortune and Cooper, in the fields of Journalism, stands in the foremost ranks. The consecrated Jackson, the Silver-tongued Isaac, the Philosophical Griggs and a host of eloquent heralds of the Cross are at their posts doing Yeoman service for God and the Race.

The end is not yet, it is the hour of morning glory, the birds are singing their sweetest songs, the laughing waters, flushed with purple light of day move majestically to the distant seas.

Brothers of united friendship, sisters of mysterious ten, if you would hasten on the glorious consummation of the Race, continue to enlarge the place of your tents, stretch forth the curtains of your habitation, spare not, strike telling blows against anarchy, treason, lynchings and infidelity.

Weigh every man in the scales of justice. The curtain of our order is justice, even-handed justice. A pound for a pound, a penny for a penny, without regards to persons.

Man for man, woman for woman. Justice is one of the moral attributes of God, who is judge of all the earth. Justice is the first Cardinal Maxim of the U. B. F. and S. M. T. A principle that governs the world, that opens the Gate of Heaven to the beggar as well as to the prince.

Justice carries no prejudice, has no malice, dispenses none, but deals to every man the measure of the law.

Christianity, a beautiful civilization, with a prayer on her lips, benediction on her brow, points to a wounded Christ, a crucified and resurrected Christ, whose word is the old fashioned Bible, with its doctrine, "I was sick and ye visited me, lame and ye gave me a crutch, blind and ye physicalized my eyesight, orphaned and ye mothered my soul. I was lost in the mountain, and ye gave me a home in prison and ye ministered unto my wants."

I was lost on the mountains and ye heard my cry. I was steeped in sin and ye lifted me up from the miry clay to the Rock of Ages that Cleft for me.

I was an out-cast and ye found me without shelter, ye gave me a home, removed my filthy rags, washed me in the blood of the Lamb and made me white as snow.

This is the christianity that you are spreading throughout the world. This is the religion of humanity, Christ is the author and cannot fail in erecting our temples, soothing and sorrowing, relieving suffering humanity, we go in Jesus's name.

We cannot fail. He is our buckler, our shield, our strength abides in his bow.

He has always fought our battles. He swore by justice on Sinai, that he would deal justly.

He swore by mercy when he crossed the bridge of signs and stopped in the manger for you and me.

He swore by truth when he shook the earth with his groans on Calvary. He took our hands in his hand and promised to be our friend forever.

He put his hand in God's hand and declared that whoever the Son set free, is free indeed. Since this craft of oursha a been out on the sea of life, you have heard thunders roll, and you have seen the lightning flashing.

The enemy has sought to destroy you, but Jesus promised to be with you always. Do you know his name? He is the captain of our salvation, and has never lost a battle, armed with the sword of justice since 1861 you have been on the warfare, battling with sin in high places, with treacherous men and women in your own ranks.

By and by the war will be ended, and our armour will be laid down, all at Jesus feet.

Mercy, the second Cardinal Maxim of our Order, may be considered the ropes of our tent. Justice demanded satisfaction, mercy paid the cost.

When man broke God's law, justice called the case in court the same day man fell, but Mercy was there. Justice issued a decree that man must die, but Mercy plead for the life of the criminal, and said; let him live.

"Here, the plea ended, and profound silence filled the courts of Heaven."

truck gardening soon after being liberated from slavery and accumulated his fortune by hard work and saving. He was highly respected by all residents of this section.

MR. B. F. SMART.

The above is a likeness of Brother B. F. Smart of Maryville, Mo., who is in the race for Grand Treasurer of the M. W. Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. of Missouri Jurisdiction. Brother Smart is a hustling and energetic man and we firmly believe that if he is elected to the position he is seeking that he will fill it with credit to himself and the Fraternity. Brother Smart is a very enthusiastic Mason belonging to Cyrene Lodge 58 A. F. & A. M. Cyrene Chapter R. A. M. T. G. McCampbell Commandery K. T. and Moslem Temple Shrine at St. Joseph, Mo. He is one of the pillars in the Mount Zion Baptist Church, and a very useful man to the community from which he hails and no move is ever fostered without he is interested in it. He owns much real estate in Maryville, and a beautiful home all modern. He was Master of Cyrene Lodge for 3 years and was then elected Treasurer and next Secretary of the same the latter office he now holds.
